Egyptian art remained unchanged for 3000 years. In this session, we will explore the prolific art of the ancient Egyptians covering wall paintings that depict their way of life, pyramids, mummies and royalty such as King Tut, a child king, and Queen Nefertiti. We will also sculpt the Sphynx and explore the Egyptian writing by having each student write their name in Hieroglyphics.

We will combine techniques of space composition light and shadow, one-point perspective, two-point perspective and creating depth and 3D. We will use pencils, charcoals, soft pastels, oil pastels, watercolor, acrylic, clay, and foil.

To register: fill out and detach the registration form below, attach a check payable to Mark Twain PTSA, and send both to the PTSA. Send a snack with your child and pick up promptly at 4:10pm. For more information please contact Silvia Madrova: malaceks@gmail.com

Mark Twain After School Programs Refund and Behavior Policy

Refunds: A full refund will be granted to any student who withdraws up to 2 days after the first class. Otherwise, no refunds unless initiated by PTSA.

Behavior Policy: Mark Twain PTSA organizes after school programs to offer students enrichment programs conveniently located at the school. However, for us to continue to offer these programs we must have one PTSA member stay to assist the instructor at each session. We must also insist that students respect the instructor and act in an appropriate manner, and that guardians be on time to pick up students at the end of each session.

If your student has behavior issues which are disruptive to the class, or is not picked up in a timely manner, we will issue you a warning. If there is a second incident, we will be forced to terminate your student's participation in the program. A refund for remaining sessions will not be granted.

Thank you for your cooperation.
