

Community School

11133 NE 65th Street · Kirkland, WA 98033

A child-centered alternative with parent participation since 1971.

Multi-age classes, grades 1 through 6.

We Invite Your Family To Join Us As We:

- ❖ Build children's self-esteem, self-empowerment and internal motivation
- ❖ Achieve rich academic, social, and emotional growth through experiential learning in multi-age situations
- ❖ Nurture mutual trust and sustain a non-competitive learning environment
- ❖ Promote a sense of responsibility to the community and to ourselves through cooperative work
- ❖ Acknowledge and value mistakes as a natural part of the learning process
- ❖ Appreciate and expect children to grow at diverse individual rates academically, physically, emotionally and socially
- ❖ Actively and visibly involve parents

Information Night January 15, 2009 at 7 PM at Community School.

Interested parents must attend this meeting.
This is the only time that Lottery Forms are available and accepted.

Children who prosper at Community School:

Enjoy interacting with children of all ages • Thrive without competition or external rewards • Work toward personal responsibility • Prefer to learn by doing • Do not rely on adult validation to have pride in their work • Set goals for their growth
