Students in the third through fifth grades will discover the joy of writing through a series of interactive workshops. Beginning with poetry and iambic pentameter (think "Roses are red..."), students will learn that poetry doesn't have to rhyme as we explore Haiku and freestyles; but then explore the relationship between poetry and songs. Fundamentals of short story writing (plot, setting, characters...) follow as we end with learning the relationship between short stories and scripts for plays and movies.

All skill levels welcome.

Please note: For safety purposes, one PTSA Parent is required to stay during each class. If you are able to volunteer, please indicate so on the form. If we do not have enough volunteers, we will be forced to cancel the sessions and your payment will be refunded.

Student Class Withdrawal: Refund in full will be granted to any student who withdraws up to 2 days after the first class; otherwise, no refunds.
