

The number one concern of parents today, is the health and safety of their children....

Adults are responsible for the safety of children. Yet most adults are uncomfortable with or are uncertain about how to approach the topics of abuse and abduction prevention with their children.

We can help.

Rosa Parks PTSA is bringing a P.E.A.C.E of Mind workshop to you on 10/15/09 at 7:00 P.M.

Don't be scared! This engaging safety workshop is a must for all parents, caregivers and grandparents. You'll learn all the essential tips and tools you will need so you can confidently talk to kids about keeping themselves safe without scaring them (or you!). Join us in learning the most effective and progressive strategies in preventing childhood sexual abuse and abduction.

Attend this workshop and you will...

- ☉ Reduce your child's risk for abuse and abduction.
- ☉ Understand why teaching "stranger danger" does not work.
- ☉ Learn what the real risks are
- ☉ Learn easy, age appropriate tips and tools for teaching safety (without scare tactics) and the confidence to talk about it!
- ☉ Give your child life skills that will last forever.

Empowered kids...

- ☉ Demonstrate how to make safe choices.
- ☉ Understand healthy boundaries.
- ☉ Learn to listen to their instincts.
- ☉ Know their family safety rules.
- ☉ Reduce their risk of abduction and sexual abuse through knowledge, confidence and safe choices.

Educate and empower your family for a safer tomorrow!

Want to learn more? Have questions or concerns? Visit us at www.POMWA.org