

How to Recognize the Function of Behavior and How to Prevent Challenging Behaviors

Speaker: Cassie Martin

May 11, 2010 6:30 p.m.

Rosa Parks Elementary School

22845 NE Cedar Park Crescent, Redmond, WA 98053

A Parent Education Workshop sponsored by

Rosa Parks PTSA & Wilder PTSA

Cassie Martin is a doctoral candidate at the University of Washington. She specializes in inclusion, challenging behavior, accessing the general curriculum and education policy and law.

She consults all over the Pacific NW, including a large amount at LWSD, and continues to support clients in Boston where she taught and was a special education administrator.

Cassie is also a research scientist at the University of Washington where she works on a federally funded grant with the goal of building capacity in school districts by training teachers to use evidence based practices with students with Autism Spectrum Disorders.

Questions? Contact Amy Verrall, Rosa Parks PTSA Special Needs Chair, home@verrallfamily.com