

Inglewood Junior High School

'Knight Life' 9th Grade Cruise

IMPORTANT Parent and Student Information

June 03, 2011

Parent and Student Information:

Please read the follow information and guidelines carefully...

- Our goal is to have a safe and fun celebration!
- Participation in this celebration is a privilege; administrators can exclude students for poor citizenship during the school year.
- School rules apply for the boat cruise.
- Dress is casual and school dress code is in effect. Students should wear comfortable shoes with low heels. Depending on the weather, you may wish to bring a sweater or coat.
- No backpacks or large purses should be brought. There is no place to store items on the boat. Students will have to carry anything they bring all night.
- Please keep track of sweaters, coats, cameras, etc. during the evening. Have a friend watch your belongings, if necessary.
- All students must be at Inglewood no later than 5 pm the night of the cruise. Buses will leave at 5:30 P.M. Students will meet in the gym to get ready at 4:30 P.M.
- Students will receive their bus assignment on Thursday before the event.
- All students must ride their assigned bus to and from the boat cruise.
- Photos will be taken on the boat and available for purchase at lunches the week following the cruise for $6.00 per photo.
- Food and drinks will be supplied for students during the cruise as part of the package. Students will not need to bring any money with them.
- Parents, please pick up your student at Inglewood following the event. Buses should arrive back at school about 10:30 pm.
- Ticket payment ($45) and permission slips should be turned in to Attendance Office. Please make checks out to Inglewood Junior High. Deadline is May 13, 2011.
- This is a celebration trip for all our 9th graders and we would like them all to join us. If you need assistance with the ticket payment please contact Karen Rasler at 936-2360.
- Let's have a fun trip!
